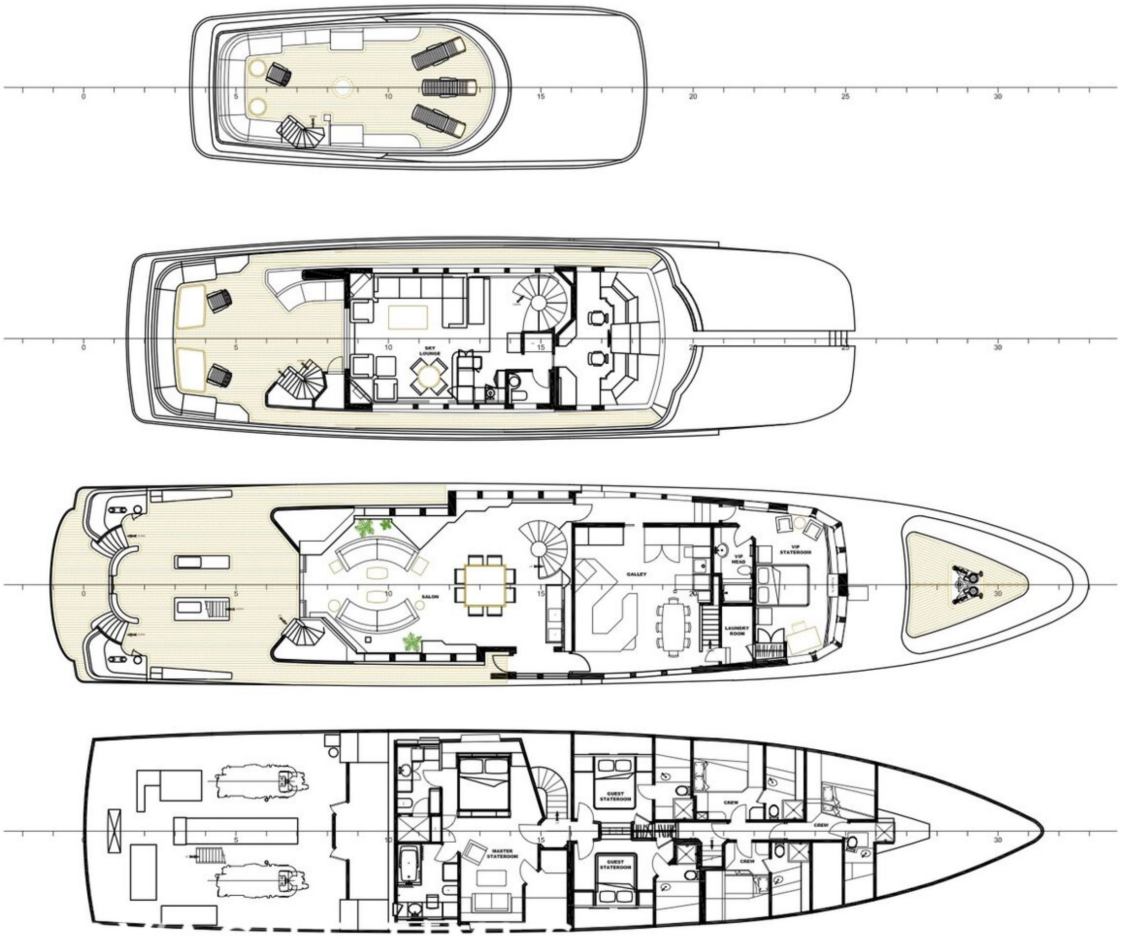
The "Envy" is a 41-meter (134-foot) luxury motor yacht built by the renowned German shipyard Lürssen in 1995, featuring an aluminum hull and superstructure, and exterior and interior designs by Jorg Biederbeck and Patrick Knowles, respectively. With a capacity for up to 10 guests in 4 to 5 cabins, she is powered by twin MTU engines reaching a top speed of 22 knots and was last refitted in 2023.

- Length:
  40.9 meters / 134.3 feet
- Builder:
  Lürssen Yachts
- Year Built:
  1995
- Exterior Design:
  Jorg Biederbeck
- Interior Design:
  Patrick Knowles


- Hull Type:
  Semi-displacement with an aluminum hull and superstructure
- Engines:
  Twin MTU engines
- Max Speed:
  22 knots
- Accommodation:
  Guests are accommodated in 4 to 5 cabins, including a full-beam master suite.